

CLASS EXERCISE

ADJUSTMENT

Adjustment is only available for certain applicants, but it is worth understanding exactly what the process is, in case you decide to use it. This exercise sheet is designed to get you thinking about the process for Adjustment.

Work your way through the questions below.

1. In one sentence, describe how you become eligible for Adjustment.

ANSWER:

2. What does Adjustment allow you to do?

ANSWER:

3. Where would you find out if there are places available in Adjustment?

ANSWER:

4. Provide four examples of things you should consider before contacting universities and colleges about Adjustment.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5. When, and for how long, is Adjustment open?

ANSWER:

6. If you've confirmed you're eligible, what are the three main steps you need to take to secure a place in Adjustment?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

7. Which four things do you need when you call the university/college?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

8. How do you know you have secured your place using Adjustment?

ANSWER: