

Making informed subject choices

It's not always easy to decide what combination of subjects to study at advanced or higher level.

A What do you need to consider when making your choices? Talk to your neighbour and come up with at least three things you need to take into account:

1	_____
2	_____
3	_____

B Visit www.which.co.uk/aleveldecisions to read the article entitled 'Six things you need to know before making your A-level choices'. For each of the sections below, come up with one sentence that summarises the main points you would want to pass on to a friend.

1 Certain uni courses will look for specific A-levels

_____

_____

2 Taking certain A-levels will open up more university course options

_____

_____

3 A-levels are a lot tougher than GCSEs

_____

_____

4 Some courses and unis have lists of subjects they don't accept

---

---

5 Know myth from reality

---

---

6 Many unis and courses will consider you whatever you choose

---

---

C Now go to www.which.co.uk/aleveexplorer and see what degree ideas your various subject combinations could give you.

What are your top three?

1 _____

2 _____

3 _____