SUMMARY
There are over 3,250 courses to choose from in legal areas such as:
- business
- civil
- criminal
- European
- public

You can combine law with subject areas such as:
- criminology
- finance
- criminal justice
- international human rights
- medical ethics

Some universities are better at particular specialisations than others, so when researching where you want to study your LLB, you should be taking into account the areas that might be of interest to you, then tailoring your search to make sure you have the options to take electives in these areas.
