

UCAS

Top tips for managing applications this month

1. Check your colleagues have the correct permissions in the Adviser Portal.
2. Make sure your students have entered the correct information in the qualifications section – read our top tips.

3. Check out our advice for writing references.

Alert: The Adviser Portal will not be accessible on 20, 21, and 22 December for maintenance.

Supporting last-minute applications

Join us ahead of the January equal consideration application deadline at 9:15 on 14 January for top tips to support your students, and the chance to ask the experts questions, live.

Book your place

Book your place at the International Conference

Join us 10 – 11 June 2025 in Edinburgh, Scotland for our biggest-ever International Conference. A delegate ticket gives you access to a two-day programme packed with talks, seminars, panels, workshops and networking with UK higher education and adviser experts.

Book your place

Student progression reporting

UCAS Adviser Reports give you the tools to report strategically on your students' application data and see overall trends in progression. Annual progression reports and destination maps are now available for subscribers. Not a subscriber? Reporting starts from just £50.

Find out more

Providers say early research is key

The University of Oxford and Kings College London joined our latest webinar to share their top tips on supporting international students. We discussed the UK application process, visa requirements, and tips to support research.

Watch the recording

Top 3 resources to support student research this month

1. City Guides: Discover what it's like to study in that location.
2. Unibuddy: Chat to students on the courses they are interested in.
3. Subject tasters: Find out what it's really like to study that subject.

Contact us About us