

L41: unconditional offers

University of Liverpool's perspective on unconditional offers:

At the University of Liverpool (L41), we do not have a practice of issuing unconditional offers to applicants in advance of them having taken their A levels or other Level 3 qualifications, or to make a conditional offer unconditional, if the applicant accepts our offer and makes the university their firm choice.

Unconditional offers are only made when applicants already have their Level 3 examination results.

We will make offers that are conditional on achieving the specific grades (and any other additional or non-academic criteria) that we articulate in our offer via UCAS.

At Liverpool, each application is carefully considered before an offer is made. We believe the offers we make are appropriate to the individual, and can provide a stimulus for success. Making a conditional offer and taking individual circumstances into account when the results are available, allows us to be flexible and responsive to individual needs, and the context in which applicants have achieved their qualifications as well as the grades they achieve.

Definitions of offer types:

Unconditional offer

This is an offer made by a provider where they are satisfied that an individual has demonstrated sufficient attainment and potential to succeed on their chosen programme. Based on the offer status at the 30 June application deadline.

Conditional unconditional offer

An offer made by a provider which was originally conditional, but becomes unconditional if the applicant selects that offer as their firm (first) choice. By definition, conditional unconditional offers that are selected as a firm choice by the applicant become unconditional and are also included in the unconditional offers group (see above).

Offer with an unconditional component

All offers showing as having an element of unconditional offer-making, that is, unconditional offers plus conditional unconditional offers that have not been selected as firm (and hence remain conditional unconditional).

All offers

All offers made by the provider, subject to the coverage of this report. This includes conditional as well as unconditional offers to 18-year-old main scheme applicants domiciled in England, Northern Ireland, and Wales.

Technical note:

The coverage of this report is limited to offers made by 30 June, to 18-year-old main scheme applicants domiciled in England, Northern Ireland, and Wales. This is because these applicants are least likely to apply already having achieved a full set of qualifications typically required for undergraduate higher education.
