Start 1 your search

The UCAS search tool is the most comprehensive course search available. It's always up-to-date and reliable. Search by:

- subject
- uni or college
- location

or browse search.ucas.com for inspiration.

The Tariff

Some of your offers from unis or colleges might depend on you getting a certain number of Tariff points. Wondering what they are? Find out at www.ucas.com/tariff.

Apply 2 yourself!

Once you know what you want to study and where, it's time to apply! Register for our online Apply service – www.ucas.com/apply – and fill in your application. There's lots of info on our website to guide you through the process.

Personal statement

3 Your personal statement is your chance to demonstrate to unis and colleges that you're committed to your chosen subject, and to persuade them you'd be a great student. There's advice, hints, tips and tools to help you online at www.ucas.com/personalstatement.

Thinking about your personal statement?

UCAS

Do...

- use your best spelling and grammar
- show you know your strengths
- be enthusiastic
- expect to produce several drafts
- ask people you trust for their feedback

Don't...

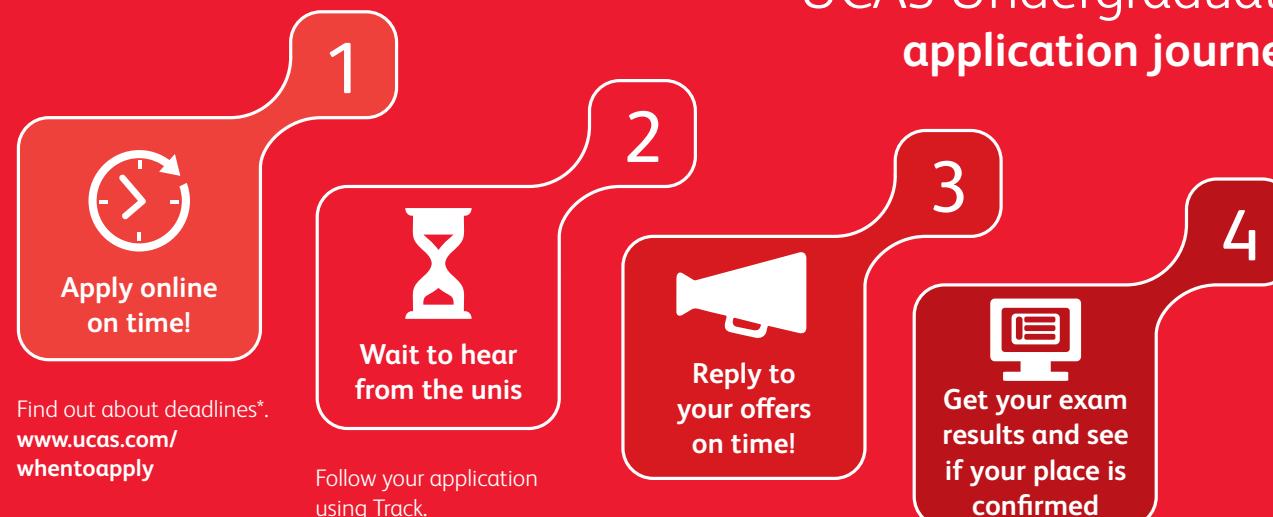

- exaggerate – if you do, you may get caught out
- rely on a spellchecker as it will not pick up everything
- leave it to the last minute

Get more help and advice in our personal statement tool.

*Deadlines

15 October (18:00 UK time) for all courses at the universities of Oxford and Cambridge, and most courses in medicine, veterinary science, veterinary medicine, and dentistry.

15 January (18:00 UK time) for the majority of courses.

24 March (18:00 UK time) for some art and design courses.

UCAS terms explained

Clearing – Available from July to September. If you don't have a place, you can check which unis still have spaces. Use the UCAS search tool to find a course.

Adjustment – You are eligible if you have met and exceeded the conditions of your firm choice and have been accepted on that course. You can look for a different course while still holding your confirmed place.

Extra – You might be able to add another choice if you've received decisions from all five universities or colleges and weren't accepted, or if you declined the offers you received.
